WHO: Friday, October 14

The Grand - Rust, The Glimmer Twins

Kicking off The Shore Trip at 8:00 p.m. on Friday, October 14 is Rust, a group of renowned musicians who have been performing since the late 1960s. The band's passion for Neil Young's music is clear to the audience as they create a memorable experience that comes wildly close to attending a Neil Young concert.

Following Rust, at 9:30 p.m., The Glimmer Twins bring the sounds of the Rolling Stones to the stage as they rope audiences in with their ability to simulate the raw energy of some of the best performances of the Stones' career.

Saturday, October 15

The Grand - Ben Abney

Ben Abney kicks off the second night of The Shore Trip, Saturday, October 15, at 7 p.m. Until Ben, no other tribute performer has successfully replicated the music and performances of Bob Dylan. Always changing styles during his lengthy performance catalog, Ben has the one-of-a-kind, unique persona to blow audiences away with the way he looks, sings, and plays like Dylan.

The Grand - Long Live the Beatles

Then, at 8 p.m., Long Live the Beatles starring the Mahoney Brothers shows the Golden Nugget why a former Beatles' manager said, "If you want to see what The Beatles were all about, see The Mahoney Brothers' show." With startling physical and musical resemblances, audiences will agree they are the strongest Beatles tribute band playing today.

The Grand - Who's Next

Next in the night's lineup at 9:30 p.m. is Who's Next, the band billed as the #1 live tribute band to The Who. Thanks to authentic stage wear and instruments, their live show recreates a magical time in the 1970s when many believed The Who were the greatest rock stars on Earth.

The Grand - Echoes of Pink Floyd

Closing the weekend at 11 p.m. with the classic, uplifting, and emotionally resonating music of Pink Floyd is Echoes Of Pink Floyd. The running detail of the show set to a colorful, shifting laser show larger than any other today, will move the crowd, as Pink Floyd's music has for decades.

The Shore Trip is produced by SMG Entertainment, and tickets can be purchased at Ticketmaster.com: $10 for Friday, $15 for Saturday, or $20 for both days.
