Confederate Railroad – Thursday, December 5th – From rowdy country to raw emotion, a Confederate Railroad concert today covers a wide range of feelings. Young people will be there rocking to "Trashy Women," while their parents and even grandparents will likely be singing along to "Jesus and Mama." Confederate Railroad first rolled onto the national country music scene in the early 90s with its unique style and sound. Headed by founder and frontman Danny Shirley, the former backup band for both David Allan Coe and Johnny Paycheck got their big break by signing with Atlantic Records. The first single from their debut album ("Confederate Railroad") was "She Took It Like A Man." It went to No. 26, a preview of what was to come. "The next two singles, "Jesus and Mama" and "Queen of Memphis" went to the top of the charts. Three more huge hits followed, "Trashy Women," "When You Leave That Way You Can Never Go Back," and "She Never Cried."

Mark Chesnutt - Friday, December 6th – Mark Chesnutt is one of Country’s true musical treasures. Critics have hailed him as a classic Country singer of the first order. Some of Country music’s most elite entertainers, from George Jones to George Strait, echo in this sentiment. He has 14 #1 hits, 23 top 10 singles, four platinum albums and five gold records to climb the charts one right after the other making him one of Billboard’s Ten Most-Played Radio Artists of the ‘90’s. Mark’s singles were some of the decade’s most memorable; from the fun tempo “Bubba Shot The Jukebox” to the emotional ballad “I’ll Think Of Something.” Mark is easily identified for his string of hits including “Brother Jukebox,” Blame It On Texas,” Old Flames Have New Names,” “Old Country,” and “It Sure Is Monday.” Start your NFR concert series on December 7th with Mark Chesnutt in the Golden Nugget Showroom.

Thompson Square – Saturday, December 7th – It's been a decade since the husband-and-wife team of Keifer and Shawna Thompson exploded out of Nashville with their multi-platinum mega-hit "Are You Gonna Kiss Me Or Not," and crowds remain hungry for more. CMT awards; appeared on The Tonight Show, Jimmy Kimmel Live, NBC's TODAY Show, CBS This Morning as well as numerous primetime tv specials and awards shows; earned No. 1 records in three countries, and even launched their own podcast. They've been praised as "remarkable" by Taste of Country, "deeply personal and emotional" by Sounds Like Nashville, and "vivacious" by Rolling Stone.

Ray Wylie Hubbard – Sunday, December 8th – A favorite among outlaw country and Americana, Ray Wylie Hubbard is an Austin Music and Eric Church-inducted Texas Heritage Songwriters Hall of Famer and the go-to songwriter for Lucinda Williams, Pat Green and Waylon Jennings. They honed their early skills playing Black cubs throughout the south, and singing backup for artists such as Percy Sledge, Eddie Floyd and Little Anthony & The Imperials. Within a few months, the brothers moved north, immersing themselves their rock/ country sound in the Atlanta market, where the Allman Brothers were the emerging kings of the music world. You know them for "Dancing Cowboys," "Sugar Daddy," "You Ain't Just whistlin' Dixie," "Lovers Live Longer," "Do You Love As Good As You Look," “Redneck Girl,” “For All The Wrong Reasons,” “I Love Her Mind,” “I Need More Of You,” “Old Hippie,” “Too Much Is Not Enough,” “Kids Of The Baby Boom,” “Reggae Cowboy” and Crazy From The Heart,”...all of which have lined the corridors of the Bellamy’s musical history and their walls with platinum and gold.

Larry Fleet – Friday, December 13th – Tennessee-born troubadour Larry Fleet grew up on a stack of records spanning Merle Haggard, Otis Redding, Willie Nelson, and Marvin Gaye. A thoughtful songwriter with a knack for a one-liner, an ear for a sturdy hook, and a powerhouse voice that strikes like a match, Fleet was working blue-collar jobs to make ends meet long before landing his recording contract with Big Loud Records. Six years in, the devout family man is turning heads among fans and critics with albums full of soon-to-be-classics; 2021's tribute to the music that raised him, Stack of Records, his aptly titled 2019 debut, Workin' Hard, and his to-be-released third effort, Earned It, out September 1. Saving Country Music puts it simply: “If you're looking for the future of traditional country music, then look no further than...Larry Fleet.” A road-tested live show standout, Fleet wrapped 2022 with his first-ever headline One For The Road Tour, following up crowd-winning opening slots supporting Darius Rucker, Willie Nelson, Jamey Johnson, Jon Pardi, and many more.
